

WV HUMANITIES COUNCIL HISTORY ALIVE PROGRAM!

Hosted by: The Pleasants County Historical Society at the Marina

Friday, April 21, 2023

The Biography of
Lt. General
Thomas J. Jackson will be portrayed by Doug Riley.

7:00 p.m.

Program open to the public at no charge.

Doug Riley, is a retired history teacher from Tunnelton, WV. Since 2010, he has given over 350 presentations to schools, fairs, Civil War Round Tables, & Historical Societies.

Join Us for An Evening With Stonewall Jackson

PCHS Fundraiser
To fund museum
operating costs

Dinner at 6:00 p.m.

$35 per person or $60 per couple

(payable to Pleasants County Historical Society)

Roast Beef, Baked Potato, Green Beans, Roll, Dessert, & Beverage
Provided by Crossroad Catering Service

Dinner Reservations Required:

Tickets available at: Phillips Pharmacy , River's Edge, or from PCHS members

If questions, contact Larry Butcher, program coordinator at (304)684-9475

Reservation Deadline is Tuesday, April 18th.